

PART VII

ORGANIZATION OF THE
NAVAL AIR GROUPS AND AIRFIELD UNITS

(Digitized by Joseph Ed Low, September 2005)

NOTE

The heavy horizontal line denotes the tour of the command unit during which an Air Group or Airfield Unit was assigned; the thin horizontal line(s) denotes the tour of deployment at the points designated. Any changes in the command unit or points of deployment are offset by dates in parenthesis wherever known.

Where a redesignation of any Air Group occurs, the data is continued under the new designation.

Air Squadrons have been abbreviated and differentiated by varying broken lines. Examples:

T-100		100th Reconnaissance Squadron
S-200		200th Fighter Squadron
K-300		300th Attack Squadron
